

H&K-Academy

Building knowledge and recognizing potentials!

Your questions:

- How can you prepare your employees for the changes in the energy market?
- How will the energy market develop in the future?
- Which chances and risks will these changes bring?
- What do you have to do and what will you have to do to achieve successful existence?

Our solution: The H&K-Academy! We convey to your employees the basics of the energy sector. Furthermore we are the first point of contact for special topics.

- Business Process Management
- Future energy products
- Energy forecasts- the key to success
- Distribution portfolio – the basis for the successful purchasing
- Intelligent energy systems– technologies, innovation impulses, business models
- Customer management in utilities – Reducing costs, optimizing processes, increasing quality
- Energy Efficiency Management in industrial companies
- Asset Management in the grid business
- BSI Protection Profile, gateways, gateway operator ...
- What is to be done as municipal utilities?
- Scrum - stepwise to success
- Change & communication management

If you are interested in an individual topic contact us and we will prepare a personal seminar for your needs. We will find the best way for you!

Information:

Our offer is aimed at executives and employees in companies in the energy sector as well as in energy intensive industries. We provide our seminars in our training rooms in Bielefeld or if desired as inhouse seminar in your company.

Improve your chances - Chose the H&K–Academy!

The significant structural changes in the energy sector bring variations which should be seen as market opportunities. Take action and be aware of the chances the development brings!

This future work is one of the most important contributions to the livelihood of a company. Secure your success and invest in your employees' knowledge!

Dr. Hollmann & Kammel stands for innovative consulting based on longtime experience and know-how in science and the practice of the energy sector.

We are the first point of contact for energy topics!